Notice of Intent to Provide Access to Case Information in the Matter of The People of the State of California vs. Scott Lee Peterson, Case Number SC055500A

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to California Rule of Court, Rule 2.503(e), the Presiding Judge of the San Mateo County Superior Court intends to provide remote access to the public court records in the matter of The People of the State of California vs. Scott Lee Peterson, Case Number SC055500A, dating from 2020 to the conclusion of the case. This order is necessitated by the extraordinarily high number of requests for access to documents, and the significant burden this would place on the operations of the Court. This decision was made based on the factors outlined in CRC 2.503(e).

Accessible documents will be redacted as follows:

No juror names or other juror identifying information will be provided by remote access. The Court will to the extent feasible redact the following information: driver license numbers; dates of birth; social security numbers; Criminal Identification and Information and National Crime Information numbers; addresses and phone numbers of parties, victims, witnesses, and court personnel; medical or psychiatric information; financial information; account numbers; and other personal identifying information.

This order will be issued 5 days following this notice, absent any change to this decision prompted by public comments. Any person may file comments with the Court for consideration via an email addressed to Feedback@sanmateocourt.org.

No hearing shall be held on this matter unless deemed necessary by the Presiding Judge of the San Mateo County Superior Court.
