SAN MATEO COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT APPOINTS TWO NEW COMMISSIONERS

Presiding Judge George A. Miram announced today that the San Mateo County Superior Court has appointed two local attorneys to fill the vacant court commissioner positions.

Hugo Borja and Susan Jakubowski were selected to fill two commissioner positions. The superior court judges as a whole selected these outstanding attorneys from a pool of more than fifty applicants. Judge Miram, who along with Judges Barbara Mallach, Steven Dylina, Gerald Buchwald and Commissioner Susan Greenberg, oversaw the selection process.

Hugo Borja has served on the Private Defender Panel in San Mateo County since 1989. He has acted as a judge pro-tem in traffic, small claims and juvenile court over the last seven years. Borja attended Hastings College of the Law and Santa Clara University. He assumed his duties on January 24 in Redwood City.

Susan Jakubowski is a legal research attorney for the San Mateo County Superior Court, handling criminal and probate matters since 2000. She previously served as a Deputy Public Defender in Santa Cruz County for four years. Jakubowski graduated from Santa Clara University School of Law and attended Babson College in Massachusetts. She will assume her duties in April.
