

INTERNET ACCESS FOR THE ONLINE PARENTING ORIENTATION

Please note: the orientation takes approximately 1 hour to complete. Please allow yourself enough time to complete it in full.

If you have access to a laptop, but do not have regular WiFi access:

Free public WiFi is available in many locations throughout the County, for a list of locations please visit: <https://www.smcgov.org/smc-public-wifi-project>. Keep in mind you will need to have a way of either printing or saving your completion certificate.

If you do not have regular access to a computer, the following locations allow public use of computers to access the Internet. This list is NOT comprehensive, you can do the orientation at any location that provides Internet access, and will allow you to print or save your completion certificate.

COURT LOCATIONS

You may request to use a computer at the Family Law Facilitator's Office (FLF) on a first-come first-served basis during their open hours.
